Memo.

Inam Superintendent's letter No. 40 dated 5th November 1891.

———— " ————

The facts of the case are as follow:—

One Ananthabhar, Kayum-guttedar of the Heggana-halli village, Magady Taluk, died in Krodhi, (1844-45), leaving behind him 3 Sons and a daughter (Tulsi Boyee). After the death of his 3 Sons, their widows, Kolama, Nagu Boyee and Venkoo Boyee, divided the village amongst themselves, and each widow was enjoying 1/3 Share of the village independent of the other two.

share in gift to Bheema Char (husband of Tulsi Boyee), Nagu Boyee made over her share to Bawaji Shama Row and his brother Jaya Row, for Rs 347. 14. 1, and Venkoo Boyee was enjoying the share herself. So, there were actually three share holders in the village, viz, Bheema Char, who had his share by gift, Bawaji ShamaRao and Jaya Row who purchased their share from Nagu Boyee, and Venkoo Boyee who obtained her share by inheritance.

3. On the death of Nagu Boyee, Venkoo Boyee, objected to the assignment of the share to Bawaji Shama Row and Jayarow, and filed a suit in the Civil

Civil Court to recover the Share assigned to them. But in the Court it was finally decided that Venkoo Boyee was not entitled to the Share of Nagu Boyee, because before her death she had been enjoying her Share independent of the other two widows; and the suit was dismissed with costs. Thus Banaji Shamarow and Jaya Rao established their claims to a third Share in the village and they were enjoying their Share.

4. During the Inam Settlement in 1880, Bheema Char, one of the Share holders, failed to bring to the notice of the Inam Superintendent, the names of Banaji Shamarao and Jayarao, his his co-shareholders, to be inserted in the Inam Register and also in the Title Deed. At the time of Inam Settle-ment, the latter were not present to establish their claims.

5. The petitioners Bangi Shamarao and Jayarao complained in their petitions dated respectively 22nd July 1881 and 30th January 1891, that their co-share-holders (Bheemabhai and Venkoo Boyee) pur-posely did not bring to the notice of the Inam Superintendent their names to be registered as Kayamguttadars and that no notice was given to them of the arrival of the Inam Superintendent for settlement and re-quested that their names might be inserted in the Inam Register.

The

the correspondence shews that no such notice was given to them according to the rules.

6. The petitioners have produced the following documents in support of their claims :—

(a) The deed of sale executed by the legal shareholder Nagu Boyee.

(b). Receipts granted by the Amildar of the Magdi Taluk for the Gutha amount paid by Banagi Shamarow.

and (c) Copies of judgment and Decree passed in their favor.

Letters dated the 10th August and 5th November 1891, Nos 23 and 40, from the Superintendent of Inam Settlements in Mysore Dockets dated 22d. June and 9th August 1892 Nos 299 and 138, from the Deputy Commr. Bangalore D.

N. 3500-1. R.F. 76-92 dt. 1/8/92 3.

With their original enclosures.

Order thereon:-

With the first of the papers read above, the Inam Superintendent submits a Memo and original papers relating to the Kayemgutta Village of Heggunahully in the Magadi Taluk, and solicits instructions ~~of Government~~ as to whether the names of Shama Rao and Jaya Rao, purchasers of one third share in the said village, ~~can~~ may be inserted in the Inam Register and Title Deed.

2. The Dy Commr of Bangalore submits, with reference to a call made by this Office, a report of inquiry held by Mr Vaidyanatha Iyer 2nd General Assistant Comr into the claim of Shama Rao and Jaya Rao referred to above and states that Bheemachar, another shareholder in the Village objects to the proposed alter-ations in the documents, which objection, he states, is untenable.

3. From the papers submitted it is clear that Shama Rao and his brother Jaya Rao are the purchasers of 1/3rd share in the Village belonging to one of the daughters-in-law of the original grantee, and as such have been enjoying it since 1861, paying the proportionate quitta amount direct to Government. It is also clear that their claim was not brought to notice when the settlement was made by the Inam Department in 1880.

4. Under such circumstances ~~that~~ the Govt. are pleased to sanction, under para 12 of the Inam Rules, the insertion in the Inam Register and Title Deed, of the names of Shama Rao and Jaya Rao as the owners of one third

Share in the said Kayem.

To,
The Chief Secretary to the Government of Mysore

Sir,

With reference to para 5 of Govern-ment Proceedings No 3500-1 R.T.76-92 dated the 1st instant, I have the honor to invite the Chief Secretary's attention to the Vernacular Pro-ceedings returned with the above, from which it will be observed that, although the claim was preferred to this Office in 1881, the party did not appear before the Amildar for enquiry-(vide Amil's report No 330/751, dated 13th February 1882)

2. After obtaining a decree in the civil Court for his share in the village, the party again presented a petition in 1891 for necessary alterations in the Title-Deed and Quit-Rent Registers, and the matter was duly brought to the notice of Government by this Office Letter No 23 dated 10th August 1891.

All enclosures to be transmitted to be thereby returned
